

KENTUCKY BOURBON EXPERIENCE

They say necessity is the mother of invention, and bourbon is no exception. Weary Kentucky settlers – tasked with getting crops over narrow trails and steep mountains – put their heads together and landed upon an inspired solution. Converting corn and other grains to bourbon not only made the goods easy to transport, but it provided settlers a welcome diversion from the rough and often tedious life on the frontier.

Today, Kentuckians continue the time-honored tradition of distilling bourbon, perfecting the craft their ancestors developed centuries ago.

PACKAGE INCLUDES:

- 2-night stay at a 4-star hotel in Louisville, Kentucky, for two people, ages 21+ only
- Enjoy some local flavor as you experience a chauffeured tour to your choice of two iconic bourbon distilleries
- Select which distilleries you wish to visit from a list of some of the area's finest and you'll be whisked away from your hotel in an air-conditioned vehicle for a day of tasting
- Distilleries include Woodford Reserve, James Beam and Maker's Mark
- All room taxes included
- No expiration dates; blackout dates include major holidays & events